SCHOOL DAYS CLOSE.

Pretty Program for the Seventeenth Annual Commencement at the Academy of the Sacred Heart.

The closing exercises at the Academy of our Lady of the Sacred Heart always prove an interesting event and happy are the few honored by invitations to the exercises of the pleasant, successful school, just north of Fort Wayne. The occasion is made doubly enjoyable by the sisters who do so much to make their guests recollect the hospitality and maiden efforts of their pupils.

The feature of this commencement, which occurs June 30, will be the production of a four act drama, "The Heir-ess," by the Misses Mary Moran, Hilda B. Leach, Alice M. Beugnot, Irma Jeffers, Emma McCartney, Elma Harmon, Clara Beugnot, Blanche C. Harmon, Mildred S. Mulhall, Mary P. Parker, Mary A. Belmont, Mary Sheridan, Catharine Schneider and Ella L. Kelly.

The Wabash Shops Closed.

The Wabash employees were treated to a genuine surprise party yesterday at 4 o'clock when the following notice was posted up:

FORT WAYNE, June 16, 1885.
After 4:40 o'clock to-day the shops will be closed indefinitely.
By order of
A. A. TALMAGE, Gen'l. Man.

W. S. MORRIS, M. M.
The men are much discouraged at the order and the officers give no idea of the situation.

The Wabash road is in a very unsatisfactory condition, financially speaking. Too many non-paying leased lines have almost totally bankrupted it. If the Wabash management should forfeit the lease of the Indianapolis, Peru and Chicago line and devote their whole time to an efficient management of their two lines, reaching from St. Louis to Toledo and from Peoria at Detroit, these roads would be self-supporting and do a profitable business.

No Telephone for Michigan City.

The Michigan City Dispatch says: "Superintendent H. H. Matlock, of the telephone company, who was here Saturday, said that the fate of the Michigan City exchange was still undecided. One thing though was certain, that is, the company can not pay royalty to the Bell company and maintain the plant here at $3 per month. So it can readily be seen that unless the law is evaded in some way, or theroyally lowered, the exchange will have to go. The officers of the company have not returned from the Boston conference yet, but when they do matters will be definitely settled. Mr. Matlock went to Chicago last evening."

New G. R. and I. Uniforms.

The Grand Rapids Democrat says: "The new uniforms for the Grand Rapids and Indiana railroad employees are being rapidly finished by E. S. Pierce. The first one completed was on exhibition in the Great Wardrobe show windows yesterday. The suits are of blue and the buttons of silver, with 'G. R. & I.' in raised letters upon each."

Three Rival Fairs.

Williams, publisher of the Sunday Times, has published a full retraction of all charges made against me and my home, and has also given the assurance to proper parties, that I shall not henceforth be referred to, directly or indirectly, in his paper, provided I will withdraw my offer of $100 to any person who might publicly whip him, I do hereby recall my offer as long as his assurance is made good."

HIS LAST CALL.

Death of One of Fort Wayne's Most Esteemed and Honorable Citizens.

We are called upon to chronicle the death of a beloved and esteemed citizen, Samuel T. Davis, known also as deputy treasurer of Allen county. His death occurred at his late residence, No. 88 West Superior street, Tuesday at 10 o'clock a. m., aged forty-nine years and one month. Mr. Davis was sincerely loved and honored by all who knew him, he being known as honorable and honest in his dealings with his fellow men. It seems hard to lose so estimable a citizen. In all of his different callings in his life he has been found faithful to his trusts, and may his manly character be a true guide to his true friends to admire, as those who knew him best, loved him most.

Mr. Davis died a christian, believing in the true faith of christianity. Not a word of sorrow or grief crossed his peaceful lips and he seemed willing to go.

He leaves a beloved and christian wife to mourn his untimely death. It seems as though she can scarcely bear such severe and sudden grief. Mrs. Davis has the deepest sympathy of her many friends in her sad affliction.

Funeral at his late residence Thursday morning at 9:30 o'clock. Services will be conducted by Rev. W. H. McFarland, of the Second Presbyterian church, Interment at Spencerville cemetery.

Simpson M. E. fair opened splendidly last evening on the lawn under tents brilliantly lighted up. There is a fine exhibition of articles of value and beauty and taste. The fancy table is attractive in an eminent degree, and back of it a gallery of oil paintings and specimen of artistic skill to take the eye and catch the money. The interest for the first evening was wonderful. An orchestra to be present every evening. Every thing any one could desire by the way of confections &c. The exhibition will continue from evening to evening for about one week or ten days. The place—corner of Harrison and Dawson streets, south Fort Wayne.

At the Academy to-night occurs the fancy dress carnival and from the current reports of the costumes to be worn it promises to be a beautiful sight. Fair ladies, (no charge for this pun) beautifully dressed. There will also be in attendance a genuine gipsy fortune teller and tambourine girls.

A CLUB HOUSE.

The Fort Wayne Canoe Club to Establish Headquarters at Rome City.

There was a meeting last night of gentlemen interested in lake sports, at the office of W. D. Maier. The object was to interest a party of Fort Wayne people in the erection of a club house at Rome City. The scheme met with instantaneous approval and before many weeks a handsome building will dot the banks of Sylvan lake at Rome City. The club house will be elegant and complete in all its appointments and the paraphernalia in it will be unique and plentiful. Charles McLain, deputy county auditor, and Henry E. Fisher, business manager of the State Zeitung, will go to Rome City to-morrow to purchase a site for the club and in the meantime articles of association will be prepared and filed.
